Sites to List Your Property On:

The following are websites used by local workforce members looking for housing. These would be great places to list your property. Each of these options require that you monitor their various communication channels; as a reminder, these are suggestions and you may list your property wherever and however you wish.

Facebook Marketplace

You must have a Facebook page to post here. Make a post and include your property details. Check and respond to comments and direct messages to ensure you see inquiries come in.

Truckee Tahoe People - Facebook

A grassroots community of primary residents in the North Tahoe-Truckee region, this Facebook page is where locals suggest looking for housing. You must have a Facebook page and request access to view and post here.

North Lake Tahoe/Truckee Renters Network - Facebook

Another Facebook page formed due to the surge of primary residents turning to social media to find housing. This is a place specifically designed to connect locals to open housing. You must have a Facebook page and request access to view and post here.

Craigslist

Make a post and include your property details. People will reach out via email and phone.

Zillow

The housing site with the largest reach. A possibility of numerous non-responsive tenant applicants.
